

My family and I place a very high value on K-LOVE radio. It is our primary source for Christian music and local information. They serve the community well with non-commercial wholesome entertainment and would be greatly missed in the community if they went off the air.